MARION'S GALA WEEK.

RECORD BREAKING CROWDS FROM ALL SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY ARRIVE AND ARE WELCOMED.

MARION'S HOSPITALITY WIDE OPEN

FRIDAY NIGHT OVATION.---CITIZEN'S GIFT TO MANAGER L. G. DICKEY.

From every point of the compass the people came to Marion, by special trains, Automobiles, Surreys, Hug-me-tight buggies, on horseback, any old way to get here and they certainly all arrived. June fourteenth to the twentieth was one of the happiest weeks that the sun ever shone upon in this section of Crittenden county.

Our Oklahoma home-comers commenced to arrive on Saturday and they were given a hearty welcome, Henry Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Lefe Cruce, Mrs. Mary Belle Strahley, Mr. Perry Maxwell led the van from the new state, all richly bronzed by the sun and winds of that country. There are many more of our people making the mistake of their lives remaining in that cyclonic state, we wanted them here with us this week and we would show them the error of their ways and we were ready to roast the fattest calf and serve it up with asparagus and green peas with something on the side while we labored with them to return to old Crittenden and to keep returned. There are the Lawrence Cruces, the Evans', the Clarks, Haynes, Sayres and others, it is all very well to leave home for a while to make your money but remember and hurry back with it where there is some pleasure in getting rid of it, in other words Oklahoma may be a fine place to get money but just think how easy you can get rid of it in Crittenden.

The wanderer from Porto Rico, Ed Gray, looks well and how happy the father and mother were at his homecoming.

John Franks, from Colorado, looking strong and well; Kay Kevill, from California, as handsome and debonair as ever; Will Rochester and Gene Wilson, from Georgia, where the big watermelons grow; Miss Carrie McConnell, from Pennsylvania; Miss Mira Dixon, from Ohio; Dan Browning, looking as happy as he used to, here in Marion when he sold two mowers and a reaper in one day, and from his present state of Indiana comes Mrs. Harry Kuykendal; Missouri gives us back Miss Nonie Blue; Tennessee returns us Mr. and Mrs. Charles, coming nearer home we have from Paducah Miss Lillie Cook and Miss May Fleming, Paul Gossage from Owensboro, Clarence Black, Kuttawa, with Will Ringo and Kearney Blue. There are likely many more that have not had the time to come around and say "howdy" but they are all as welcome as the flowers in May, may their shadows never grow less and when they are ready just come back home.

There is so much to cover, so many pleasant happenings, it is difficult to make selections. The Automobile parade on Wednesday was a hummer, the decorations in perfect taste, the young ladies just a bit lovelier than usual, the Marion band at its best, the chaffeurs careful but enthusiastic, from this hour the entire city was handed over to our visitors.

Wednesday the Bohmur Kryl band, a great aggregation of musicians, the long haired leader knew what we wanted and he gave it to us in unstinted measure, good musical music too, there might have been a few Hungarian rhapsodies but we were quite ready for rhapsodies of any kind, from Hungary or Princeton, N. J.

The Ollie James pilgrims had their barbecue too that morning, there were many invited guests, Col. D. C. Roberts Toast-Master, was in his happiest mood, so was everybody else, the barbecued meats with that indescribable flavor, the corn cake and the entire menu quite perfect, even the iced water was much pleasanter to the taste than ordinary ice water, Huston Orme, a prince of entertainers, and Will Clifton, a splendid second. Ollie James was surely nominated for our next President and had it been possible we would have elected him then and there. In the afternoon the big band played in the great clean, strong tent of the Chautauqua, fully two thousand people in attendance, a magnificent appreciative audience. Again at night with a crowd overflowing the grounds but all pleased and happy.

Manifestly it is idle at this time to recall the splendid numbers the enthusiasm of the boy scouts and the joy of the campfire girls, every day was just a little bit nicer and happier than the day before.

Thursday was a continuation of this beautiful uplift movement, clean, educational and inspiring. Marion has rightly taken her place among the cities of dustless streets, careful sanitation, plenty of motor cars for transporting our guests, good hotels and splendid business houses of all kinds, really a city to model after, and under the mayoralty of Judge Kevill and his efficient chief of police J. F. Loyd it will remain the model town of Western Kentucky.

Friday was really the entertaining day, many dinners were given, many friends made, the Chautauquans were given a glimpse of Kentucky and of Kentuckians at home.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH DEDICATES

A Large Crowd Attended the All Day Services Held on East Depot Street.

The dedication sermon at the 2nd Baptist church on East Depot street was preached Sunday morning by Rev. W. D. Powell, as per previous announcements. A large congregation was present and much interest manifested.

Dinner was served in the house and on the grounds. The splendid sum of $850.00 was subscribed and the debt of the church thus provided for, and a nice surplus fund left in the treasury to improve the approach to the building and to lay concrete walks and to carry out other planned improvements.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. S. M. Jenkins, Dear sir: Second Baptist church of Marion wishes thru the columns of the Press to express our appreciations of the kindly feelings of our many friends in coming to our assistance with their contribution in our dedication service. You have given us more than we asked, and we hope you will never find cause to regret your contribution.

May God use it as a means in His own hand to extend the gospel of our Christ, and bring the dead to life, and the blind to see.--God's blessings upon you. Hosea C. Paris, moderator.

some dinner served on the spacious grounds of E. J. Hayward by the Crittenden Hotel as caterer was one of the events. Mr. Ralph Bingham and Mrs. Bingham honored Opie Reed and a dozen others with invitations for this al fresco affair and a pleasant evening was the result. No other grounds in or near the city would have been quite so charming as those of the Haywards and the merry party were profuse in their thanks. The host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bingham had as guests the following:--The Misses Ethel, Annie and Helen Barnard, Messrs. Robt. Barnard, Russel Banks, E. R. Whelan, Opie Reed, G. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Dickie, Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Snyder and Charles E. Varney. Later in the evening Col. Opie Reed held an informal reception under the auspices of Mr. Huston Orme at which Col. Roberts, an old acquaintance with Charles James, of Evansville; Mr. Rommel, of Canton, Ohio; Landram, of Baltimore; Wiles, of Fredonia, and Clifton, of Marion, were presented. One should meet Opie Reed in such idle moments to really know the lovable humor of this great, loyal, witty man.

Many private dinner parties were served on this day throughout the city. The decorations were well carried out in the national colors and with the aid of the electric lights our streets were made very beautiful.

At the close of the chautauqua a very pleasant happening occurred. Judge Blue, in behalf of many admirers, presented the Director of the Chautauqua, L. G. Dickie, a token of the esteem of our citizens which was as eloquently accepted and the week's festivities ended with the promise that 1914 will give us not only a repetition of the best but the greatest week ever in the history of Marion.

CIRCUIT COURT IS IN SESSION

Impressive Charge to Grand Jury-- Short Session Probable-- Many Cases Adjourned.

The summer term of the Crittenden Circuit court convened Monday with Judge Gordon presiding. The various officers filed their reports and the grand jury was impaneled as follows:

Omer M. Crisp, J. F. Casner, Grover White, Robt. Gibbs, W. D. Drennan, G. W. Lawson, Geo. R. Bibb, J. C. Kirk, Gilbert M. Worley, Murray Hodge, Eura Shewmaker, and Sam A. Snow. Judge Gordon then proceeded to deliver his charge to the grand jury, which was quite a learned and exhaustive discourse on the supremacy of law what the grand jury must perform in enforcing law and protecting society.

Ordinarily a man does not notice the common duties he owes to society very much.

Grand Jurors are appointed to have in view these matters.

It is the duty of every citizen to obey the laws. If a law is not a good law a strict enforcement will induce the legislature to repeal such a law. If good a strict enforcement will perpetuate such law. Laws are intended to protect society from the lawless. The man who violates law is an enemy to society, which must all the time be on guard against the lawless.

The barbarity of the former method of inflicting the death penalty by hanging was so cruel, that many persons shrank from returning a verdict for the death penalty, but in the electric chair this barbarity has been done away with, and more electrocutions have been done since this law than there were hangings in the past fifty years.

The charge of the Judge dealt largely with the special laws governing ordinary violations of law. Especially severe were the comments of Judge Gordon upon the violation of the law known as destroying tobacco plant beds. He urged the grand jury to devote strenuous efforts at this term to find out who are guilty of destroying any plant beds in this county. These violators were characterized by Judge Gordon as "selfish, mean, low-down contemptible persons," who ought to be put in the penitentiary. He has no patience with such a man as there is no excuse to justify a man in destroying the chance of a man's making a living for a year. He has a right to plant tobacco if he wants to do so, and the man who interferes should be in the penitentiary. "I do not know," said Judge Gordon, "if there is any organization back of this, but if there is go after this organization and put every member in the penitentiary."

The grand jury should indict whenever the commonwealth presents reasonable proof. That portion of Judge Gordon's charge relative to the enforcement of the liquor law forceful and most interesting. He stated that the enforcement of this law depended on the sentiment of the people in a community.

It has only been thirty years since the people have been thinking on this subject and this is the reason there are some communities where the sentiment is not in favor of the enforcement. But if the same progress be

D. WARD KING HERE TUESDAY.

Further Enlightens our Farmers And Road Work on Road Building.

D. Ward King, the celebrated split log drag man, of Maitland, Mo., spoke to a large crowd here Monday evening also Tuesday. Mr. King is known the country over on account of being the original discoverer of the split log drag, one of the best devices for road work in existence and one of the simplest and easiest of construction. He gave exhibitions of the merits of his device which attracted people for many miles. While here Mr. King paid this office a pleasant and welcome visit.

The date of his visit was confused in some way, he being expected here Monday when as a matter of fact his contract was for Tuesday. However he gave a splendid talk to an impromptu crowd at the Court House Monday afternoon, and again Tuesday afternoon to a much larger crowd, also making a demonstration of the manner of using the "King Split Log Drag." This was beneficial to our people and we think Mr. King's visit will be the beginning of a new era in road building in Crittenden Co., and that Mr. King will be the "Moses to lead the people out of the mire and mud into the promised land of good roads at no cost."

made in the next thirty years there will not be a drop of liquor manufactured in the country except for art and science, and this will be denatured alcohol.

"If the lies told in reference to the violation of this law were each a pebble there would be enough of them to pave hell from one side to the other," was one of the statements made by Judge Gordon when referring to the feeling that a man must protect one from whom he buys whiskey illegally.

It is the duty of every citizen to appear before the grand jury when subpoenaed and to answer all questions put to them truthfully.

The Judge cautioned the grand jury in regard to holding all proceedings as strictly secret. He informed them that this grand jury could not indict one of their number, all 12 being exempt no matter what charge might be brought before them about and one of their number.

All jail cases should be first considered. Any 9 grand jurors can return a true bill.

The virtue of our womanhood must be protected, and the penalties for carnally knowing a female under 16 years of age, and for seduction, under promise of marriage, of a female under 21 years of age were especially noted by the Judge.

Murder, voluntary manslaughter, involuntary manslaughter, malice, afore-thought, and in fact all the degrees of the taking of human life were explained to the jury with the penalties attached in each case. All persons must exercise care as to avoid the taking of human life. Abortion in all its phases was explained to the jury and the penalties therefor.

Judge Gordon's charge was instructive to all who heard it, jurors and lawyers as well as others who were in the court room. Few of our laws are understood by the masses of the public.

The reading of the docket followed and court was opened and in full swing before noon.

JUDGE J. F. GORDON'S SPEECH

Talks Entertainingly Monday Afternoon On the King Split-Log-Road-Drag.

The Court House was crowded to its limits. Even the scribe stood; and standing room was at a premium.

For some reason the arrival of Mr. King was delayed, so our Circuit Judge, the Hon. J. F. Gordon, of Madisonville, who is holding court here this week, was prevailed on to tell the crowd what had been done over in Hopkins county.

"Mr. King visited us about a year ago," said Judge Gordon, "and he roused us up and told us about the 'Split Log Drag.' He gave us a practical, common-sense talk. We took hold where he left off and now we have three or four hundred miles of splendid road. Roads that are as smooth as floors and which remain in good condition in bad weather."

Judge Gordon was very enthusiastic in his description of the beautiful boulevards produced by the new plan of doing the road work. He told of his own road out at his farm; a road he has been dragging for considerable period. It seems that Judge Gordon himself made a "King Drag" about seven years ago and used it on his road with success. But he could not get the neighborhood to adopt the practice until after the King meeting at which the Hopkins county Good Road Association was organized. This road of his, the Judge said, stays good all the time and costs nothing but a little work done at the right time.

"You've got a lot to learn," exclaimed Judge Gordon, "when you get onto a split-log-drag. It looks nice and easy when you see Mr. King stand on the drag and drive along so smoothly, but when you come to try it you feel different." He learned to ride the drag himself, and then he taught his men.

The highways of Hopkins county are divided into short sections and a farmer is placed in charge of each section. These sections are from two to four miles in length and will be shortened as rapidly as possible. Because the authorities agreed with Mr. King in saying that a mile of road is enough for one drag.

The Judge, in humorous way, told of a meeting in one of the magisterial districts. The log drag was up for discussion. Some praised it and some found fault with it. But the discussion stopped when, Mr. Hunter, a saw mill owner, made a speech. Mr. Hunter stated that he owned (7) saw-mills, that all but one of them had been compelled to shut down because of the bad roads; that the one that had continued in operation all winter was over on the Earlington and St. Charles road which had been dragged and which he had been able to log over right straight along. Mr. Hunter could haul fifteen hundred feet, (1,500), of lumber with one yoke over the St. Charles road when the same load would put the wheels in mud up to the hub on the other roads. This testimony closed the controversy.

The Judge convinced the vast audience of the practicability of the King-Split-Log-Drag.

CAIRO GETS 250,000

Governor Signs Bill Which Insures New Bill

Springfield, June 24.—Governor Edward F. Dunne, signed senate bill No. 666, appropriating $250,000 for the raising, strengthening and improving of the levee system of Cairo Tuesday afternoon.

Assures Sixty Foot Levee.

With the signing of the bill appropriating the $250,000, Cairo is assured a 60 foot levee system, the necessary and remaining money having been appropriated last year by the United States government.

The present plans, which provide for a stone reinforced retaining wall of 58 feet on the government gauge will be changed to 60 feet by raising and making it broader at the base and at the top, the latter being increased to four or five feet in thickness.

Accordingly, I can drop them a line telling them of the articles I have for sale and when orders are received I send all articles under ten pounds by parcel post. Over that I find express cheaper. I can send ten pounds maple sugar to Chicago for thirty five cents. If I sent the same by parcel post it would cost me seventy-nine cents.

"Another way I have used the parcel post is in the saving of the farm team and the time of a man. Needing some extra provision for dinner, I telephoned my meat man for four pounds of beefsteak to be sent out by parcel post. The meat was delivered to me by 11 o'clock, with a charge of only fourteen cents.

"I have come to the conclusion that the parcelpost is only of benefit to farmers for small shipments and short distances.

For long distances, especially on large packages, express rates are cheaper. But altogether, facilities for shipping are now much better than before we had parcelpost."

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Dinner By Parcel Post.

A farmer, writing about the parcel post in the current issue of Farm and Fireside, says:

"The parcel post is something for the farmer to rejoice over.

For once we are ahead of our brothers in the city. They must go to the post-office or a postal station to mail their packages, while we can do it through our rural carrier, with only a step to the road. This has enabled me, here in Vermont, to get individual customers fifty miles away and ship direct. I can send them a five pound box of butter for seventeen cents.

"Now I have a list of customers who like fresh farm produce and are willing to pay

"There's a Great Day Coming."

The Dovea News thus pictures "a good time coming."

"The day is fast approaching when the girl who wants a real husband will sidetrack the champion cigarette sucker and the champion golf player, and fall into the arms of the champion corn-grower who can make an acre of ground cough up 200 bushels. Likewise, the time is coming when the wise young man will no longer seek a wife from the ultra-hobbled piano pounders, but will cast his eye to the sweet faced maiden who can coax 500 quarts of tomatoes from one-tenth of an acre of ground, put 'em up so they will keep sweet and then cook 'em to the queen's taste, by gum.

Always At Work

He had obtained a place in an estate agent's office and was doing everything he could for the interest of his employers. The other evening he was at a social gathering and was asked to sing.

He responded with "Home Sweet Home." His friends were a little surprised at the selection, but he was heartily applauded. Stepping forward, he said: "I am glad you like the song, there is nothing like 'Home, Sweet Home,' and let me say that the company I represent is selling homes on terms to suit everybody within forty minutes' ride of the city. Everybody ought to have a home. If you don't want to live in one of these houses yourself it's the chance of your life for an investment."—Tit-Bits.

They eat hay, grass, and carrot soup. And the captain of the sheep is called the Belle-Buck."—Woman's Home Companion.

DOUBLY PROVEN

Marion Readers Can No Longer Doubt The Evidence.

This Marion citizen testified long ago. Told of quick relief—of undoubted benefit.

The facts are now confirmed. Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit. Mrs. Emma Weldon, Marion, Ky., says: "Kidney trouble bothered me for five years and my health became run down. My back was lame and pained me most of the time and I suffered from headaches and dizzy spells. None of the remedies I took, gave me permanent benefit. I finally began using Doan's Kidney Pills as a last resort, procuring them at Haynes & Taylor's drug store. In less than a month they removed every symptom of the trouble. I heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other kidney sufferers."

BRAIN LEAKS. BY F. S. LOYD.

Frank Loyd was heard to say the other day:

"Ora, did you offer that spring poem to the editor of the Crittenden Press?"

"Yes, sir."

"What did he say when he read it?"

"When I saw the expression of his face I didn't wait to see what he'd say."

Jim Rorer was walking down the street the other day when a little boy, seeing him coming, placed himself in a convenient place to speak to him. When Jim came up to him the boy pulled off his hat, held it out to him and begged him for a nickel and Jim said:

"You'd better ask for manners instead of money."

"I asked for what I thought you had the most of," said the boy.

"Don't tell everything you know," says Uncle Gus Bentley. "Keep a little for seed."

Albert Elder says: "If everybody would go to the store when trade is dull they'd avoid the rush."

Mrs. Emma Crow said to her husband the other day:

"Do you think there is any truth in the theory that big people are better natured than small ones?"

"Yes," answered Dick. "I do. Look at the difference between the Jersey mosquito and the Jersey cow."

Aleck Garner said to a neighbor the other day:

"Its got so there's no more dependance to be put in the clouds than anything else these days. A lot of clouds will visit our community and hover around close, making threats that'd lead you to believe they were going to soak the whole neighborhood; then, after all of their blowing around, they will float on off without so much as to tighten up the hoops on the water barrels and the wash tubs."

A certain young man called in at Mrs. Smith's the other day and said to Eph:

"Is your sister at home?"

"Naw, she ain't."

"Are you sure?"

"Course I am. Didn't she tell me so a minute ago?"

"Any mail for me, Grant?"

"I believe so, Albert. It is either a post hole digger or a wagon tongue."

Miss Helen Davis said to her class in school the other day:

"Who can describe a caterpillar?"

"I can, Miss Helen."

"All right, Cecil, what is it?"

"An upholstered worm."

Albert Elder on his trip to Louisville put up at a hotel and during supper he said to the waiter:

"Is this a pork chop or a mut-ton chop?"

"Can't you tell by the taste?" asked the waiter.

"No, I can't."

"Then," said the waiter, "what difference does it make which it is?"

A man said to little Charlie Oakley the other day:

"Were you sick the first time you ever smoked?"

"I should say so."

"I shouldn't think you'd ever have cared for tobacco again if it affected you that way."

"It wasn't the tobacco that affected me. Father was to blame for that."

"Your granddaddy is pretty old, isn't he Cecil?"

"Yes, he's an old chap. He can remember the time when the Louisville evening papers were published in the afternoon."

S. D. T. A. NEWS.

BY JAMES N. BANKS.

GET TOGETHER—INSPIRING LETTER FROM LOUIS HANCOCK.

Editor Banks:

I hear some objection to the constitution and by-laws indorsed at the Madisonville meeting and recommended to tobacco growers of Kentucky as the basis upon which it is expected to consolidate the numerous tobacco associations. Of course there will be objections because of some things that are in it, and because of some things that are not in it. No one expected it possible to formulate plans and rules that would suit every one. No society, state or nation has ever adopted a code of laws that were entirely satisfactory to all. The plan of salvation as devised by the divine Father and revealed in the life and teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ does not meet the approval of all mankind. The constitution and by-laws of the United States under which we have become one among the most intelligent and prosperous nations of the world does not suit all our people in every detail, and representatives meet every two years to change and amend the laws of Kentucky. It seems folly to suppose that we tobacco growers should be able to prepare a code so perfect that no one can find objections.

It was the purpose of the Madisonville meeting to formulate a constitution and by-laws to govern a new association and submit it to the tobacco growers of Kentucky for their approval to become effective when ratified by two thirds of the members of the associations desiring to consolidate.

There were present and participating in that meeting about 300 representative farmers, members of the Stemming District Tobacco association, the Green River, the Dark Tobacco Protective and quite a number of the Equity and Farmers' Union associations. From these were selected about twenty as a committee whose report represents the best methods as learned by study and experience in co-operative work among tobacco growers during the last eight years.

It opens the way for tobacco growers to get together. It guarantees protection by the laws of Kentucky. It provides a system of marketing tobacco along well established business lines. It protects member from possible fraud by requiring officials to give sufficient bond. It adopts the initiative and referendum and provides for recall.

It insures democratic rule by a majority vote. It guards the right of every member, giving him a voice in transaction of all business through his magisterial district committeeman. It limits the amount of expenses within reasonable bounds. It provides an easy way to alter or amend our laws. It insures a prorata distribution of proceeds of all sales of tobacco, giving to every member his just share whether his individual crop is sold or not, and takes care of all unsold tobacco until such time as it can be sold at a fair price. In short, it enables us to protect each other.

It is now up to the officials of every tobacco association or pool in Kentucky to put the question fairly and squarely before their members and it is up to us tobacco growers to say whether we will get together in one body with one selling head and secure a fair price for our tobacco, or remain in a separate associations fighting each other, thereby enabling the buyer to get our tobacco at less than cost of production. Everybody agrees that we should get together and I ask tobacco growers to spot every man who opposes consolidation and ascertain whether or not he really desires to promote the interests of tobacco growers. The executive committee of the Stemming District association has set the first Saturday in July as the day to hold magisterial district meetings to determine whether or not we are in favor of consolidating. I hope every member can attend this meeting in his district and will go on record in favor of getting together. Please bear in mind this fact, unless as many as two-thirds vote in favor of consolidation the Stemming District association will remain, as it is now. No change will be made.

I hope the officials of every association or pool in Kentucky will act promptly and put the matter before their members and should any official be careless or indifferent I hope influential farmers will take the matter up and insist that tobacco growers be given an opportunity to say whether or not we will get together.

A failure to get a majority of the dark tobacco growers together this year will mean a loss of from one to two dollars per hundred pounds on all dark tobacco grown in Kentucky this year, which will amount to not less than three million dollars. We can not afford to be careless or indifferent.

LOUIS HANCOCK,
Providence, Ky.

Take Plenty of Time to Eat.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by all dealers. je

Your Future Depends Upon The Friends You Select.

The ambition to have the right kind of friends means health, money, brains and morality.

No other outside influence affects a man's life as his friends do, for the company that a man keeps leaves its impress upon his body, his bank account, his mental development and his decency, by setting the standards toward which he struggles.

It is only occasionally that men strive for an unseen ideal.

They ordinarily imitate and emulate those whom they see daily. The study of books will rarely weed out "I have saw" when the student has heard it at home for 20 years, while a young man reared in a home of culture may live in a mining camp for years and never lose the correctness of his speech.

In matters of morality, we are all a part of what we touch.

When a man is decent among vile surroundings it is usually because he has had contact with decent people. Isolated morality is nearly impossible, and the hermit does not shake off influences. He simply limits himself to those he has already had.

It is amazing that we leave the selection of friends to chance. The most careful study and investigation should regulate the choosing of companions. In choosing a place to live, the character of the neighbors should be the consideration of prime importance; and intimate friends should be selected with the utmost care. Nearly every family is on a footing of good comradeship with two or three other families, and few mistakes in life are more serious than to follow the line of least resistance in this important matter.

If you want high ideals and courage you may be sure that others with the same ideals are looking for you. No social question is of greater importance than that you should find each other; and to leave this important matter to chance through either carelessness or social fear is a crime against the best there is in you.—By Read.

Hodge Reported to Have Purchased Tobacco

Princeton, Ky., June 18.—The Hodge Tobacco company purchased the entire crop of the Farmers' union, operating in Caldwell and Hopkins counties. The price will average six cents a pound. The pool amounted to a quarter of a million pounds.

A Gleaner reporter, seeking information in regard to the above dispatch, which appeared in Tuesday afternoon papers, talked over the telephone with John H. Hodge. Mr. Hodge stated that negotiations had been pending for the purchase of the tobacco, although his brother had not communicated with him, yet he was certain that the deal had been closed. He refused to divulge the price, although it is generally believed to have been around six cents.—Henderson Gleaner.

The Old Maids of Marion.

Marion has several of what the unthinking mob term old maids—that is, Marion has a number of real bachelor girls.

Now some time in the past all of these bachelor girls had visions of a rose covered home, a bower where the everyday troubles ceased and the god of love reigned supreme.

I met one of these girls the other day, she wasn't exactly dejected but she wasn't real jolly. She said, "I believe the world is a very good world but I wish I was in Atlantic City, right now." As she uttered these pleasant words she entered the office where she was employed and was greeted by the remark from the man at the desk: "I wish you would get here a little earlier."

Thank goodness she was equal to the occasion for she replied, "I simply called to tell you that I am leaving for the sea shore at eleven o'clock, and that I won't be back here" and she emphasized the "here."

And she bought her ticket, and there was one bachelor girl less in Marion.

Just a year from that date she handed me a verse, patterned after Kipling, and it read as follows:

I took up the woman's burden—
And reaped the old reward—
A peck on my cheek at breakfast,
My clothes and roof and board;
A smile if he was in good humor—
A frown if he was in a huff—
But there I have got a husband,
And isn't that enough?

Stork Works Overtime in a Missouri City

Kansas City, June 17.—Fifteen of the 250 men drawn on the circuit court jury panel for this week were excused this morning because in every one of the fifteen houses the stork is momentarily expected.

Usually not more than two or three are excused for that reason.

All of the farmers on the panel were released for the cause of the press of farm work at this season.

In Society At Hebron.

Mrs. Lillie D. Daughtery entertained a number of young folks of this community Saturday evening at a birthday party in honor of her niece Miss Mamie Williams, and nephew, Hershel Franklin.

The spacious lawn was beautifully lighted with Japanese lanterns, and afforded an inviting playground for the happy guests.

The first part of the evening was spent in singing; some simple games were played, and just before the hour of parting refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. It is needless to say that it was an enjoyable occasion. Among those present were Misses Kittie Wathen, Carrie Ainsworth, Nina Paris, Ina Springs, Millie Bracey, Ena Clark, Stella Phillips, Kate Lynn, Arel Vaughn and Mamie Williams. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Daughtery, Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daughtery, Messrs. Herbert Phillips, Hollis Franklin, Dennis Clark, Eugene Threlkeld, Claude Springs, Ed Cook, Jr., Vernon Paris, Willie Phillips, Henry Lanham, Trice Turner, Tom Bracey, Jack Alvis and Hershel Franklin.

Carson Franklin, Dead.

Carson Franklin, who has been critically ill with consumption for several months, passed away Tuesday night at 10 o'clock, surrounded by his family and loved ones. He had been a patient sufferer during all his illness and had shown great christian fortitude. His remains were laid to rest at Union Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. T. C. Carter officiating. He is survived by his wife, his aged mother father and several brothers and sisters.

His wife was Miss Lena Price, daughter of the late Loyd Price, the well known merchant of Levas.

He was born Oct. 6th, 1878, and had been a member of the Union Baptist church for many years.

Election Notice.

On the first Saturday in July, at 2 o'clock, p. m., at the regular voting place, in each magisterial district in the county, the tobacco growers will meet to vote on the question as to whether or not they will ratify the constitution of the Consolidated Tobacco Growers' Association of Kentucky, as adopted at Madisonville, Ky., June 7th.

Each meeting will be called to order by some tobacco grower who will preside until a permanent chairman is elected.

Republicans to Try Issue.

Monday's Louisville Times has the following to say of the State Senator's race:

The Republicans of the Caldwell, Crittenden, Webster senatorial district have agreed on J. M. Walker, of Crittenden Co., as the nominee for State Senator to oppose J. F. Porter, of Webster, who, it is said, will be nominated at the August primary by the Democrats without opposition. While this senatorial district has heretofore been a trifle close, yet with the Bull Moose defection and the fact that Senator Porter is one of the strongest men in that section of the State, the Democrats apprehend very little trouble in holding what they have.

A Correction.

Desloge, Mo., June 20, 1913.
Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.

Dear Sir:
I noticed my letter published in your paper, and you have made an error that I hope you will please correct. I stated that it would be a very "honery Kentuckian" who would forget his friends, and kindred, and you have substituted "a very ordinary cuss" I don't approve of the expression—true we have some of those fellows out here, but there are some of them in Kentucky also, and we are very sorry for them.

Please correct this error, as I did not use the expression.

Yours as ever,

TRICE BENNETT ANNOUNCES

For County Attorney.

I take this method of making known to the citizens of Crittenden County my candidacy for County Attorney. Realizing the many responsibilities resting upon the various officials and having acquainted myself fully with the duties imposed upon this particular branch of our local government, I ask you honestly and fairly to honor me with your support.

I deem it fairness to the voters and justice to myself to say that I was graduated from the Law School of Central University of Kentucky in June 1907 going immediately to Marietta, Oklahoma where I engaged in the practice of Law until October 1st, 1911 when circumstances over which I had no control demanded my return to Kentucky since which time I have farmed on the Ohio below Tolu.

I shall conduct a fair, clean and legitimate campaign for the nomination, and election for this office and shall present myself before you strictly upon my own merits, and not upon the demerits of any person or persons who might oppose me. Having a high regard for the citizenship of this County I promise you that I shall not cast reflections of discredit upon friend or foe for the purpose of advancing my cause.

Should I be chosen by you to serve you as your County Attorney it shall be my pleasure to serve you in a firm, courteous and conetant manner, striving for honor to both you and myself. Respectfully asking your support and influence in the Democratic primary election to be held August 2nd, 1913, I am,
Yours very truly,

The C. and B. Advantages.

"The maiden trip of the Great Ship 'SEANDBEE' from Cleveland to Buffalo, which took place on June 19th, was an event of historical importance, as she is by far the largest and most costly passenger steamer on inland waters of the world. She marks the last word in marine architecture and magnificence of interior appointments, and it is not likely that there will be built in the future anything of her type exceeding her proportions. Her actual dimensions are, 500 feet long, 98 feet 6 inches wide, 510 staterooms accommodating 1500 people. She can carry 6,000 passengers and has capacity for 1,500 tons of freight on her main deck. Her hull is constructed entirely of steel and she is equipped with every modern appliance to insure absolute safety.

The marvelous growth in recent years of both pleasure and commercial travel on the Great Lakes is largely due to the splendid steamers provided by the lake lines and foremost among these, is the C. & B. Line. In addition of this gigantic ship to their present fine fleet running daily between Cleveland and Buffalo will undoubtedly attract a vast number of travelers enroute either east or west. All railroad tickets reading between Cleveland and Buffalo are good on these steamers, which leave at 8:00 o'clock every evening, and the rail journey may be broken at either City to view the beauties of the "SEANDBEE" and enjoy the luxury and comfort of the delightful lake trip."

Ice Routes to be Established in Rural Districts by the Marion Ice & Storage Co.

Marion has 5 R. F. D. routes and a number of star routes for the delivery of mail, and is soon to have established routes for the free delivery of ice to patrons in the rural districts, if the plans of Robt. T. Metcalfe the owner of the local ice plant do not miscarry. This is a new idea in the ice business and one that is as much needed as mail delivery. Ice is a positive necessity now for comfort as well as health and in time of illness in the family sometimes is a preserver of life. The editor is not familiar with all of Mr. Metcalfe's plan but those interested in getting an "Ice Route" should write him at once.

Lightning Ring Bell.

Saving Sleeping Man.

Sandusky, Ohio, June 23.—Lightning struck the dinner bell over the kitchen at the farm house of Thomas Morrow, near Milan, during a severe electrical storm early this morning.

The clang of the bell awakened Stanley Morrow, son of the owner of the premises, and Bert Scott, a farm hand, the only occupants of the dwelling.

The two men barely had time to escape from the house, from which flames shot forth in every direction within a few moments after the lightning hit.

Scarcely clad Morrow and Scott ran into the storm, seeking shelter in a barn. The house was destroyed.

I. C. Raises Track.

Cairo, Ill., June 17.—That the Illinois Central railroad does not propose to again have its main line broken by a flood was developed when it was given out that $780,000 had been appropriated to raise the company's double track line between Cairo and Mounds to a grade of five feet higher. Work is to start on July 1. The earth is to be secured from Villa Ridge hill. The new line, which leaves the present line for a distance of two miles and a half, reduces the grade there 52 feet at its maximum point.

A Modern Noah's Ark.

The Hamburg-American liner President Grant, arrived yesterday from Hamburg twenty-four hours late on account of bad weather, with an assortment of animals, snakes and birds that made it look like a reproduction of Noah's Ark. The list included three baby elephants called Rammee, Sammee and Jammee, a tall African zebra, answering to the name of Nero; 200 monkeys of all species from the baby-faced baboon of the Irrawaddy to the violet-eyed ring-tailed orang-outang of the Upper Congo; eight bounding kangaroos, four bears, three cages of variegated cats, 500 pheasants, one laughing hyena, whose smile was so weird in its effect that the ship's cook almost got nervous prostration; 500 partridges, two storks and thirteen cases of snakes, including pythons 25 feet long, and deadly vipers from Johore, only six feet long, but the bite of which is fatal in six hours. — New York Herald.

GOOD-BYE.

We say it for an hour, perchance for years;
We say it smiling, say it choked with tears;
We say it coldly, say it with a kiss;
And yet we have no other word than this— "Good-bye."
We have no dearer word for our heart's friend,
For him who journeys to the world's far end,
And scars our soul with going; thus we say,
As unto him that steps but o'er the way— "Good-bye."
Alike to those we love and those we hate
We say no more in parting—at life's gate.

Studebaker

"The LIFE of a wagon is what counts—that's why I buy a Studebaker"

"That's reasonable, isn't it?"

"A wagon that doesn't last is expensive no matter what price you pay for it."

"Suppose you buy three wagons, one after the other, and the three of them don't last as long as one Studebaker—which is the best bargain?"

"I didn't find this out myself. I heard my grandfather say it a good many years ago. He said he had proved that it paid to buy a Studebaker. I followed his advice to my own satisfaction."

"A wagon can't have life in it unless it has the material and workmanship of a Studebaker. They ought to know how to make wagons right—and they do. They have the reputation because they've produced the goods. They don't put the name Studebaker on until the wagon's right, and when you see the name Studebaker on a wagon, you know it is your insurance of quality."

"That's why I buy a Studebaker. I trust a Studebaker wagon because I trust the people that make them. It's good business."

"A Studebaker promise is always made good."

Keeping Young.

Somebody's got to keep young,
Somebody's got to keep sweet;
Somebody's got to pluck roses of love
And cast them beneath life's feet.
They talk of the burdens of age,
But the burden of all is truth,
In keeping—wherever the battles may rage—
The beautiful spirit of youth,
Somebody's got to keep young,
For it never would do if men
Were to find roses along the lane,
No dew on the roses again.
The greatest need of the world
Is the need of the sunny cheer
Of youth in the glory of song and story
To answer when life calls: "Here."
Somebody's got to keep young,
And I wonder if it is me,
Babble of song on my busy tongue
And dreams in my soul of glee!
Ah, well, I shall do my best,
For the secret of youth is this:
Love and the rose of a rosy breast
And the lips of a rose to kiss!
Somebody's got to keep young,
And that's why I'm dancing at nine,
Dewy with light of the silver night
Of the loved eyes looking in mine.
Easy enough to be old,
And sad enough in its way—
Somebody's got to be rosy with Youth
To keep us from turning gray.
—The Benztown Bard.

TO BLOCK A RIVAL CANAL

Nicaragua to Receive Three Millions Dollars For Exclusive Franchise.

Washington, June 18.—The United States will secure a perpetual and exclusive franchise for the building of an inter-oceanic canal through Nicaragua and also a naval station, together with several small islands on the Pacific coast of that country. The Wilson administration has decided to support the treaty negotiated in the closing days of the Taft administration between the United States and Nicaragua.

Secretary Bryan has asked the senate committee on foreign relations to ratify the treaty now pending before it with only one or two minor changes. Through the ratification of this treaty the Nicaraguan route will be forever closed to every nation except the United States.

The concession for a naval base on the Gulf of Fonseca, on the west coast is of more immediate importance even than the exclusive grant for the canal rights-of-way. This naval base on the west coast will be the complement of the big naval station which the United States in recent years been establishing on the Island of Guantanamo, on the eastern coast.

In return for these concessions the government of Nicaragua is to receive $3,000,000 in money to be supplied for public works or public education in that country.

Express Business.

Express companies in a brief filed with the interstate commerce commission, claim that through the new parcel post they lost in February revenues from small packages amounting to nearly five hundred thousand.

Mrs. Housewife — "Mrs. Busybody called after dinner yesterday. She always comes after dinner, and it is so aggravating when you have a big wash on scolding. I didn't have time to prepare anything nice for her. And she'll go around telling everybody what a mean table I set."

Anty Drudge—"She's a regular 'after-dinner' caller. Dinner is what she is after. But why don't you try Fels-Naptha Soap? You would have your wash all through—and dinner, too, before she got here."

Do you make your head save your hands? With Fels-Naptha Soap you can wash clothes in cool or lukewarm water in about half the time it takes by the old-fashioned boiling, hard-rubbing way. It's easier on the clothes, easier on you, saves fuel, time and bother.

Mining Engineer Wills Estate To His Starter.

Wellston, Ohio, June 23.—Dr. E. S. Higley in the early '80s loaned Charles Froelich, a struggling farmer lad, $700 with which to complete his education.

Froelich entered a college and studied diligently, finally graduating as a mining engineer. Soon afterward he sailed for Australia and was not heard from for several years.

Dr. Higley, who had given up active practice, was surprised one day, eight years ago when Froelich, grown beyond the physician's recognition, walked into his office and after a chat repaid the debt of $700 with compound interest.

After a stay of several weeks in this city Froelich returned to his Antipodean home. Nothing has been heard from him since that time until yesterday when Henry K. Thorncroft, a barrister of Melbourne, Australia, arrived in this city and notified Dr. Higley that Froelich had left his entire estate, valued at $1,000,000 to his former friend. Dr. Higley is 70 years old.

There were two men at the Christian church Sunday afternoon—J. N. Camden and W. O. Davis—to whom, I believe, the credit is due for the beginning of the anti-vote buying crusade in Kentucky.

When Campaign Chairman Camden and Secretary Davis refused to buy a vote or a drop of whiskey in the national election last fall, and when Mr. Camden made his earnest appeal to the press of the State for cleaner and higher standards in politics, right there this movement was born.

TWO AVIATORS FIGHT FIRE IN MIDAIR

Passenger's Coat Bursts in Flames, But Jannus Makes Landing in Safety.

St. Louis, June 23.—Anthony Jannus and Arthur Isminger started from St. Louis to Chicago in a Hydro aeroplane today, and in the first fifteen minutes Isminger's coat caught fire from the engine. They landed at Alton, Ill., twenty-five miles north of St. Louis, where Isminger got a new coat, and then resumed the fight.

When the hydro-aeroplane was about five miles out of St. Louis one of the tail rods worked loose.

Isminger turned and caught the rod, intending to hold it until a landing could be made.

Isminger in doing this stood in such a position that his coat tails were directly over the exhaust pipes of the engine.

The coat caught fire from the sparks.

For a few seconds Jannus and Isminger debated whether it would be better for the latter to let go of the tail rod and take off the burning coat or Jannus to let go of the steering levers. The latter course was decided on, and Jannus tore the burning coat from Isminger.

Youth Grows Nearly a

Foot in Two Months.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Surgeons at a hospital here have refused to operate on John Michael, who stands 6 feet 7 inches and is but 13 years old.

His parents fear that he is growing altogether too fast from the effect of a tumor at the base of the brain.

The giant youth has been under observation for two months, during which time he has grown nearly a foot in height, but has failed to fill out.

The surgeons first thought they might operate, but after long observation it was decided that an operation to stop the youth's growth and remove the tumor at the base of the brain would be more dangerous than to let him grow.

To the Voters of Crittenden Co.

June 21 1913. It being impossible for me to personally see the voters of the county, I have decided to withdraw from the race for assessor, I thank my opponents, (Messrs Travis and Thompson) for their fair and generous treatment; also my friends who have manifested so much interest in my behalf.

Feeling that a candidate should see the majority of the voters; and this being out of my power, I deem it best to withdraw.

Again thanking my friends for the interest shown me, I am yours sincerely,

W. K. Powell.

NEW SALEM

Summing the whole thing up in the way of a living, to say the least of it, is very gloomy.

Mrs. Mont Davenport is quite sick and is under the care of a physician.

Luther Pace has a very sick child.

Our farmers have planted their tobacco land in corn.

W. C. Tyner went to Clarksville, Tenn., Monday.

We have the best road from Marion to the county line between Crittenden and Livingston counties. Now if the boss of Livingston county will work the road from the county line to Jake Kirk's, we will most surely have the road completed from Salem to Marion.

Miss Florence LaRue is the guest of relatives at Salem this week.

Your correspondent and Judge Stevens, of Salem, are under many obligations to our old friend Dave Wolford, of Rosiclare, Ill., for remembrances shown us last week. Judge Stevens says it is the second time in life that he ever had his tuh right side up and under a drip when it rained.

Our old friend and former neighbor Henry Brewster, of Levias, paid us a visit last Sunday. Henry says he will soon be ready to sell his farm again.

A negro, a mule and an automobile had a mix up below Salem one night last week. The mule was the only one that came out on top. Both the negro and the auto had to go in for repairs.

We had the pleasure the past week of a visit from our old friend Bennett Crouch, of Hutchison, Kan. Bennett left Crittenden county twenty-eight years ago and has made his home in Kansas since he left here. He has a good position at the Reformatory in Hutchison and is doing well. We were glad to see you, old boy.

Accident at Power House.

Saturday night as the street lights were thrown on, the large 100 ft. 18 in. 2 ply leather belt jerked in two, throwing the city in utter darkness. An examination satisfied the management that a new belt was imperative. The measurements were taken and telephoned to Evansville where it was learned that no belt of the proper dimensions was on hand and that one would have to be made. This was done Sunday afternoon and night and the new belt was expressed here Monday, arriving on the 11 o'clock train. It was placed in position and glued at once, but on account of the dampness in the atmosphere it did not weld sufficiently to justify the use of it that night. It was left in the clamps until Tuesday afternoon and was tested and found to be all right and service was resumed Tuesday night. Fortunately the mishap did no damage to the machinery. Henry Frazer the night engineer was at the switch board when the belt hit him.

He realized at once the danger and promptly stopped the engine thus saving the fly wheel and opened the furnace doors thus preventing an explosion.

He thinks a stroke of lightning run in and tore the belt.

The Baptist Had Big Day. At Shady Grove Last Sunday.

Last Sabbath was a great day with the Baptist church and people of Shady Grove. A refreshing shower of rain the night before laid the dust and the blues, making everybody thankful and happy. The pastor Eld. W. R. Gibbs had with him the writer and the "Big three" laymen of Marion, J. F. Dodge, W. D. Cannon and Carl Henderson. These brethren presented the claims of missions in their most telling way, and to the great delight and profit of the large throng that heard them gladly.

The social and feeding feature were by no means the least.

The disciples of Shady Grove did not send the multitude away hungry, many baskets remained after all were filled.

It was indeed a "love feast."

The dear friends and scenes of childhood separated in the long ago were presented to view and delightful friendship and fellowship filled and thrilled every heart.

"Blest be the tie that binds, Our hearts in christian love, The fellowship of kindred minds Is like to that above."
